From Your Pastor...

Summer! Who doesn't like summer? There is so much going on in the life of the family during summer that it may be as busy as the school year. But don't we just love Summer? I do. It has always been so much fun when June comes around knowing that Summer has come. Time with the family, vacations, mission trips, camps, swimming, visiting with those you love, BBQing outside with friends, traveling, serving, loving and so much more going on during the Summer and it all is starting in June. Enjoy all that June has to offer.

But don't forget, that while you are having so much fun, the church is still there and worship services are still meeting, bills still need to be paid but the Lord has not called for a moratorium on giving your tithes and offerings as a part of your worship of Him.

I hope you remember that we do have the now famous "electronic giving" for the church. You can give online or you can give through the bank if you are not going to be in town one week. Actually you can still come by the week before you leave out of town and give the church office your tithing envelope. Regardless how you give when you are going out of town, please don't just NOT give. The Lord loves a cheerful giver and desires for us to be faithful to Him in every way. So enjoy the summer with all of your heart, all the while not letting anything get in the way of keeping your commitment to the Lord through your giving.

Your Pastor

Bill

From our Administrator & Educator

Growing up I was not the athletic type. I loved to watch movies and shows or read. My brother was the athlete. He was involved in football, baseball, basketball and he would have been involved in soccer if it had been popular back then. I can honestly say that I was involved in two sports: tennis and bowling. This year's VBS theme is "Game On", gearing up for life's big game. Vacation Bible School is a very important time in a church. It is a valuable time of growing and learning about God and many do make decisions for Christ during this time. Please consider helping out this year with VBS, there are many opportunities to serve. VBS will be July 29th – Aug 1st. The week prior to that we will be decorating the church. Your help is needed. If you could come and help out anytime during that week it would be greatly appreciated. Please ask me or Chuck and Julie Carver about how you can serve and help.

June is here and that means TNT for our children. TNT is a time of fun, fellowship and Bible devotion on Tuesdays mornings from 8:30 to 12:00 noon. We will start this year's TNT with swimming at the George's house. Diamond Hill mine will be next. Craft day is always a fun week. We have some new crafts for this year and some old familiar ones like tie dying t-shirts. TNT would not be the same if we didn't go out to Calaham's Farm and pick peaches in July. If you want to help just let me know, I would love any help I can find. And if you are going to participate please fill out a card and return it to me, this helps me prepare for each week.

Dennis
